

VA
HEALTH
CARE | Defining EXCELLENCE
in the 21st Century

VITAL
VETERANS INTEGRATION TO ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP
STUDENT VETERAN SERVICES

Sean Paul Brinston

When did you separate and what are you doing now?

I separated from the US Navy June 10, 2015. I'm currently a full-time Master of Science in Health Administration student at Fordham University—completion program July 29, 2019. In my spare time I'm working on a non-profit venture aim towards reducing substance abuse in Veterans, and under-served communities through wellness, physical activity, and leadership development.

Who are the people you are closest to?

My wife, the men I served with, my uncle, and my siblings.

What is your proudest moment?

Providing medical care to one of my Marines in Afghanistan.

What are your goals?

Add additional certifications in business to succeed in my new career to begin this fall. Also, buy a house, and start a family within the next two years. My other goals I would like to keep private this time!

What do you like best about VA work study or VITAL?

The flexibility of work hours, and empowerment by my supervisor Dr. Yvette Branson to reach my goals, through using the many benefits afforded to Veterans.